

OCTOBER 4, 2010

CIRCULAR NO. 27/10

TO MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

Dear Member:

DELIVERY OF CARGO WITHOUT PRODUCTION OF BILLS OF LADING

Reference is made to Circular No. 2/01 of January 26, 2001 concerning the delivery of cargo without the production of the original bill of lading. International Group standard-form letters of indemnity to take account of such circumstances were attached thereto. These, together with the circular in question itself, are also attached hereto, for purposes of ready reference.

Following the decision in the English Commercial Court in the case of Farenco Shipping Co Ltd -v- Daebo Shipping Co Ltd (LLR (2009) Vol 1 81) (the 'Bremen Max'), Members are now recommended to take two further precautions if they choose to accept a letter of indemnity for delivery of cargo without production of the original bill of lading. The precautions relate to:

The identity of the party to whom delivery is to be given

The opening paragraph of the letter of indemnity includes a number of italicized insertion instructions in brackets which are to be completed when the letter of indemnity is issued. This deals with the identity of the party to whom delivery is to be made. This appears as:

[insert name of party to whom delivery is to be made]

Recommendation: As well as inserting the name of the specific party (person or company) to whom delivery is to be made, Members should request that the blank section be completed as follows:

"X [name of the specific party] or to such party as you believe to be or to represent X or to be acting on behalf of X"

Reason: If a specific party only is named in the letter of indemnity, the Member may be assuming the burden of properly identifying that party. If the Member then mis-identifies the party, and delivers to some other party, there is then the risk that the Member is not entitled to an indemnity, because he has not satisfied the pre-conditions in the letter of indemnity for delivery to the named party. The wording suggested above is designed to ensure, so far as possible, that if the Member believes that the party to whom physical delivery of the cargo is given is X or is acting on behalf of X, he can rely on the letter of indemnity.

Timing of demands under the letter of indemnity

In the event that a Member delivers cargo without production of the bill of lading in return for a letter of indemnity, and an allegation is subsequently made against the Member that it has mis-delivered the cargo, accompanied by a security demand from the claimant, then the Member should immediately give notice to the issuer of the letter of indemnity that:

- (a) a claim has been notified;
- (b) security has been demanded from the Member;
- (c) the Member now requires to be secured by the issuer in accordance with paragraph 3 of the letter of indemnity.

It is essential that this is done before the Member provides any security itself to the original claimant.

Reason: The Member may prejudice his right to demand and receive security under the letter of indemnity if he provides security to the claimant before making his own demand for security under Clause 3 of the letter of indemnity.

Yours faithfully,

CIRCULAR NO. 2/01

TO MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

Dear Member:

BILLS OF LADING - DELIVERY OF CARGO
STANDARD FORMS OF LETTERS OF INDEMNITY TO BE GIVEN IN RETURN FOR:

- (A) Delivering cargo without production of the original bill of lading.
- (AA) Delivering cargo without production of the original bill of lading incorporating a bank's agreement to join in the letter of indemnity.
- (B) Delivering cargo at a port other than that stated in the bill of lading.
- (BB) Delivering cargo at a port other than that stated in the bill of lading incorporating a bank's agreement to join in the letter of indemnity.
- (C) Delivering cargo at a port other than that stated in the bill of lading and without production of the original bill of lading.
- (CC) Delivering cargo at a port other than that stated in the bill of lading and without production of the original bill of lading incorporating a bank's agreement to join in the letter of indemnity.

On November 30, 1998 the Club issued a Circular (No. 20/98) recommending revised wordings of the standard form letters of indemnity for use by Members in circumstances where they are requested to deliver cargo without production of the original bill of lading and/or to deliver cargo at a port other than that stated in the bill of lading. Three wordings were the result of a review of the subject by the International Group of P&I Clubs during the preceding months.

As a result of comment from shipowners and shipowners' organizations, a further review of the wordings has been undertaken and further modifications to them have now been made. In addition, discussions have taken place between the International Group and the British Bankers Association (BBA) on the subject. As a result, a separate standard wording has been agreed on the basis of which banks who are members of the BBA will now be prepared in principle to join in the letters of indemnity while, through the auspices of the International Chamber of Commerce, the BBA will endeavor to promote this agreed standard wording within the international business community. The BBA has also given its general approval to this Circular.

In consequence of the agreement reached with the BBA, the three recommended standard form letters of indemnity are now issued in two versions: INT GROUP A (for delivery of cargo without production of the original bill of lading), INT GROUP B (for delivery of cargo at a port other than that stated in the bill of lading against production of at least one original bill of lading), and INT GROUP C (for delivery of cargo at a port other than that stated in the bill of lading and without production of the original bill of lading) for use when the commercial party requesting delivery ("the Requestor") will alone be signing the letter of indemnity, and INT GROUP AA, INT GROUP BB and INT GROUP CC for use when a bank will be joining in the letter of indemnity and which forms incorporate, in addition to the same indemnities given by the Requestor under INT GROUP A, B and C, the separate standard wording agreed with the banks.

Financial Limit

The liability of the Requestor should generally not be limited. However, where a bank is to join in the letter of indemnity it will generally insist upon a fixed monetary limit. The amount of the limit must be a matter for negotiation in order that it properly reflects the potential exposure in the particular circumstances, taking into account, inter alia, the sound market value of the cargo at the time of delivery, but it is recommended that the limit should be a minimum of 200% of the sound market value of the cargo at the time of delivery.

Duration of security

Under INT GROUP A and AA, the liability of the Requestor (and, hence, the bank under AA) terminates upon the delivery of all original bills of lading to the shipowner. If the original bills of lading are not delivered to the shipowner, the Requestor's liability under the letter of indemnity continues.

Subject to delivery of all original bills of lading as stated, and to the two exceptions described below, the bank's liability under INT GROUP AA is for an initial period of six years, but which is automatically renewable from time to time for further periods of two years at the request of the shipowner. The exceptions are (1) that, rather than agreeing to an extension of its liability, the bank has the option of discharging its liability by paying the maximum amount payable under its indemnity and (2) that, in the event of a demand being made by the shipowner to the bank for payment under the indemnity before the termination date, or in the event of the bank being notified by the shipowner of the commencement of legal proceedings against the shipowner before the termination date, the liability of the bank will continue until the demand has been paid or the legal proceedings have been concluded, the bank, if called upon so to do, paying the amount of any judgment or settlement payable by the shipowner if the Requestor has failed to do so.

Under INT GROUP B, C, BB and CC, since it is possible for a claim to be pursued against a shipowner for delivering cargo at a port other than that stated in the bill of lading despite cargo being delivered against production of the original bill of lading, or all original bills of lading being subsequently delivered to the shipowner (in particular, in circumstances where a charterer may require a cargo owner to receive his cargo at such other port against his wishes and request the shipowner to accommodate his request), the liability of the Requestor will continue until it can be established to the satisfaction of the shipowner that no such claim will be made.

Accordingly, unless the shipowner is satisfied that no claim of this nature will be made, the liability of the bank under INT GROUP BB and CC will be as described above.

Scope of security

The Requestor is obliged to provide bail or other security not only to prevent or lift the arrest of the ship which is the subject matter of the indemnity, but also any other ship in the same or associated ownership, management or control. In addition, the Requestor is obliged to provide bail or other security to prevent interference in the use or trading of the ship, such as a caveat being entered on the ship's registry to prevent the sale of the ship which is the subject matter of the indemnity.

Where a bank joins in the letter of indemnity it will generally not agree to provide bail or other security. However, the bank will pay any amount up to the limit of its liability under the letter of indemnity in order to enable the shipowner to arrange the provision of security if the Requestor fails to provide bail or other security.

Tankers

A provision designed to give greater security to tankers has been incorporated, whereby requested delivery of a bulk liquid or gas cargo to a terminal or facility, or to another ship, lighter or barge is to be deemed to be delivery to the party to whom delivery has been requested.

Members are again reminded that, unless the Club's Board of Directors otherwise determines, there is no cover in respect of liabilities arising out of the delivery of cargo without production of the original bill of lading and/or delivery at a port other than that stated in the bill of lading and that, in such circumstances, Members are strongly advised to ensure that they are fully satisfied with the financial standing of those who are to issue these indemnities.

The standard form letters of indemnity are designed to cover a broad range of trades and operations, and Members may wish to modify the standard forms to suit particular requirements. However, in this event, it must be appreciated that if a bank is to join in the letter of indemnity there may be limited scope for amendment, and that the Requestor's bank will have to be consulted if any material change is contemplated. The Managers will be pleased to advise Members regarding any proposed modification.

Finally, it is not uncommon for Members to be requested by charterers to agree clauses in charter parties which expressly provide for the delivery of cargo without production of bills of lading and/or at ports other than those stated in the bills of lading against letters of indemnity. Members are strongly advised not to accept such clauses and it is recommended that Members seek advice from the Managers before responding to such requests.

We, [insert name of the Bank], hereby agree to join in this Indemnity providing always that the Bank's liability:-

1. shall be restricted to payment of specified sums of money demanded in relation to the Indemnity (and shall not extend to the provision of bail or other security)
2. shall be to make payment to you forthwith on your written demand in the form of a signed letter certifying that the amount demanded is a sum due to be paid to you under the terms of the Indemnity and has not been paid to you by the Requestor or is a sum which represents monetary compensation due to you in respect of the failure by the Requestor to fulfill its obligations to you under the Indemnity. For the avoidance of doubt the Bank hereby confirms that:
 - (a) such compensation shall include, but not be limited to, payment of any amount up to the amount stated in proviso 3 below in order to enable you to arrange the provision of security to release the ship (or any other ship in the same or associated ownership, management or control) from arrest or to prevent any such arrest or to prevent any interference in the use or trading of the ship, or other ship as aforesaid, and

AA

- b) such notice is received by the Bank at the address indicated below on or before the then current Termination Date.

Any such extension shall be for a period of two years from the then current Termination Date and, should the Bank for any reason be unwilling to extend the Termination Date, the Bank shall discharge its liability by the payment to you of the maximum sum payable hereunder (or such lesser sum as you may require).

However, in the event of the Bank receiving a written notice signed by you, on or before the then current Termination Date, stating that legal proceedings have been commenced against you as a result of your having delivered the said cargo as specified in the Indemnity, the Bank agrees that its liability hereunder will not terminate until receipt by the Bank of your signed written notice stating that all legal proceedings have been concluded and that any sum or sums payable to you by the Requestor and/or the Bank in connection therewith have been paid and received in full and final settlement of all liabilities arising under the Indemnity.

We, [insert name of the Bank], hereby agree to join in this Indemnity providing always that the Bank's liability:-

1. shall be restricted to payment of specified sums of money demanded in relation to the Indemnity (and shall not extend to the provision of bail or other security)
2. shall be to make payment to you forthwith on your written demand in the form of a signed letter certifying that the amount demanded is a sum due to be paid to you under the terms of the Indemnity and has not been paid to you by the Requestor or is a sum which represents monetary compensation due to you in respect of the failure by the Requestor to fulfill its obligations to you under the Indemnity. For the avoidance of doubt the Bank hereby confirms that:
 - (a) such compensation shall include, but not be limited to, payment of any amount up to the amount stated in proviso 3 below in order to enable you to arrange the provision of security to release the ship (or any other ship in the same or associated ownership, management or control) from arrest or to prevent any such arrest or to prevent any interference in the use or trading of the ship, or other ship as aforesaid, and
 - (b) in the event that the amount of compensation so paid is less than the amount stated in proviso 3 below, the liability of the Bank hereunder shall continue but shall be reduced by the amount of compensation paid.
3. shall be limited to a sum or sums not exceeding in aggregate [insert currency and amount in figures and words]
4. subject to proviso 5 below, shall terminate on [date six years from the date of the Indemnity] (the 'Termination Date'), except in respect of any demands for payment received by the Bank hereunder at the address indicated below on or before that date.

CC

5. may be extended at your request from time to time for a period of two calendar years at a time provided that:-

- a) the Bank shall receive a written notice signed by you and stating that the Indemnity is required by you to remain in force for a further period of two years, and
- b) such notice is received by the Bank at the address indicated below on or before the then current Termination Date.

Any such extension shall be for a period of two years from the then current Termination Date and, should the Bank for any reason be unwilling to extend the Termination Date, the Bank shall discharge its liability by the payment to you of the maximum sum payable hereunder (or such lesser sum as you may require).

However, in the event of the Bank receiving a written notice signed by you, on or before the then current Termination Date, stating that legal proceedings have been commenced against you as a result of your having delivered the said cargo as specified in the Indemnity, the Bank agrees that its liability hereunder will not terminate until receipt by the Bank of your signed written notice stating that all legal proceedings have been concluded and that any sum or sums payable to you by the Requestor and/or the Bank in connection therewith have been paid and received in full and final settlement of all liabilities arising under the Indemnity.

6. shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law governing the Indemnity and the Bank agrees to submit to the jurisdiction of the court stated within the Indemnity.

It should be understood that, where appropriate, the Bank will only produce and deliver to you all original bills of lading should the same come into the Bank's possession, but the Bank agrees that, in that event, it shall do so.

The Bank agrees to promptly notify you in the event of any change in the full details of the office to which any demand or notice is to be addressed and which is stated below and it is agreed that you shall also promptly notify the Bank in the event of any change in your address as stated above.
