CIRCULAR NO. 21/20

TO MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

Dear Member:

WEATHERING THE STORM: SALUTING THE SEAFARER IN TURBULENT TIMES

As they labor in their essential role of enabling global trade, seafarers must now confront the perils of the present pandemic with the same composure as that with which they traditionally confront the perils of the sea.

The American Club and Eagle Ocean Marine have produced a video entitled Weathering the Storm which salutes the service of seafarers in these turbulent times as they seek to protect themselves in their vital work, at sea and in port, against the ravages of COVID-19.

It is available at:

Your Managers trust that all who view the video will endorse the sentiments it contains. Thanks are due to all the Club's Members and Eagle Ocean Marine's Insureds who provided the material contained in the video and made its production possible.

Yours faithfully,

Joseph E. M. Hughes, Chairman & CEO
